ANNUAL MEETING AGENDA

Adam Horowitz

Adam Horowitz is an Editor-in-Chief of the website Mondoweiss. He received his master's degree in Near Eastern Studies from New York University. He has served as the Director of the Israel/Palestine Program for the American Friends Service Committee where he gained "extensive on-the-ground experience in Israel/Palestine." Horowitz's writing mainly focuses on the Israel-Palestine conflict, human rights, and international law. His coverage attributes indicate a preference for evolving stories related to government announcements and legal policy regulations. In addition to Mondoweiss, Horowitz has written for The Nation, AlterNet, The Huffington Post, and The Hill.com. He has spoken frequently on the Israeli—Palestinian conflict on campuses and to organizations.

ANNUAL MEETING AGENDA

Rep. Ruwa Romman, GA House District 97

Ruwa Romman is currently the Georgia State Representative for House District 97. She was born in Jordan and is the granddaughter of Palestinian refugees. Her family moved to Georgia when she was 7 years old. Romman graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Politics from Oglethorpe University in 2015 and a Masters in Public Policy from the McCourt School of Public Policy at Georgetown University in 2019. Ruwa has worked as a senior consultant for a professional services management company assisting government agencies and other stakeholders by advising, implementing, and developing improved strategies to deal with major public policy issues at the local, state, and federal level. In the past, she also worked as a Field Organizer for the Georgia Muslim Voter Project, as well as served as Communications Director for CAIR Georgia. Ruwa is passionate about politics, civic engagement, interfaith dialogue and community service.

JOIN US

Anyone who supports the Israel/Palestine Mission Network (IPMN) Mission Statement is welcome to become part of the network as an individual member.

Our IPMN Mission is:

In joyful obedience to the call of Christ, and in solidarity with churches and our other partners in the Middle East, this network covenants to engage, consolidate, nourish, and channel the energy in the Presbyterian Church (USA) toward the goal of a just peace in Israel/Palestine by facilitating education, promoting partnerships, and coordinating advocacy. Our network speaks TO the Church and not FOR the Church.
